

www.shebreh.org | shebreh4santacruz@gmail.com

Money brought into the community funding criminal justice reform

- $1.2 million from the California Board of State and Community Corrections (BSCC) Youth Reinvestment Grant to fund Luna Y Sol.
- $1.2 million from the Santa Clara County Abuse Mental Health Services Agency (SAMHSA) to fund the offender re-entry program.
- $6 million from Proposition 47 to fund the Coordinated Access for Empowering Success (CAFES) Program.
- $200,000 from the Board of State and Community Corrections (BSCC) Proud Parenting Program.
- $300,000 from the BSCC Mentally Ill Offender Crime Reduction (MIOCR) grant funding FUERTE Wraparound Program.
- $1 million from the BSCC Mentally Ill Offender Crime Reduction (MIOCR) grant funding Project Thrive.

Money brought into the community funding mental health programs

- $1 million from multiple foundation grants to fund various Encompass programs.

Money brought into the community funding substance abuse programs

- $1 million from Drug-Free Communities.
- $1 million from BSCC and Proposition 64.
- $1.3 million from the Hub and Spokes grant.

Money brought into the community funding immigration rights and programs

- $3 million State grant supporting a community based organization that works on immigration rights in the Central Coast region.
- $900,000 from the State of CA Department of Health and Human Services Immigration Services Funding Program.

Money brought into the community funding homelessness

- $1 million annually from HUD to provide continuous funding through our Continuum of Care.
- $150,000 from the US Department of Health and Human Services Administration for Children and Families, Runaway and Homeless Youth grant.
- $525,000 (successfully awarded three times) from the California Department of Education Education for Homeless Children and Youth Grant Program.
- $300,000 from the CA Office of Emergency Services Innovative Response to Marginalized Victims Project.
- $1.2 million from SAMHSA Housing for Health.

Money brought into the community funding youth development, education and family strengthening

- $4 million from the Head Start Program.
- $800,000 from the Gates Foundation to provide professional development and support for teachers.
- $850,000 (successfully awarded three times) from the Workforce Investment Grant Youth Services Program funding SUENOS.
- $5 million from the US Department of Health and Human Services Administration for Children and Families Pathways Grants.

Money brought into the community funding obesity prevention

- $500,000 from multiple grants secured for the United Way.